South Manchester Digital Package

- Send us your news and we will put into house style and include links back to your website
- 5 social media pushes across our Twitter/ Facebook/Instagram accounts a week
- Inclusion in our daily email
- Company logo on our homepage and every news story with links back to your website
- Bespoke company newsfeed
- 25% discount on advertising

Why South Manchester News?

- 20,000-30,000* page views a month
- 8-10,000* people read the site every month
- Reach of 50,000-60,000 across all our platforms every month inc social media
- Accelerated mobile pages
- Stories appear in Google News feed
- Headlines appear on the BBC Manchester local news page – the BBC is our second-biggest referrer after Facebook
- 80% of our readers are based in the north west with 50% in Manchester or Stockport

What does it cost?

Just £50 a week for 12 months

Verified by Google Analytics, more information on request

Logo on homepage scroller and footer AND every news page

Advert on home page and every story

Charity footballers hit the target for Seashell Trust

👤 Kathryn Dainty 📂 Charity, Cheadle Hulme, Cheshire, Macclesfield, News, Seashell Trust

Players before kick-off at the Ashfield Healthcare Communications football tournament in Macclesfield

f t p 8+

Stories appear on BBC local news

From other local news sites

About these results

↗ HS2 stations planned for Manchester Piccadilly and Manchester Airport Business

South Manchester News

↗ Arrest on suspicion of manslaughter after death of man found with facial injuries

Bolton News

↗ Prison officers halt work over claims jails are in 'meltdown'

Bury Times

↗ Why a restaurant and the council had a two-year wrangle over a tiny patch of grass

Manchester Evening News

↗ Updates on the A556 soon to be revealed

Knutsford Guardian

↗ Peter Kay to hold special Q&A concert to help a family's mission to get terminal mum life-saving treatment

Bolton News

Localised content

Altrincham

Patients receive £20,000 birthday present from Cheshire Freemasons

Patients at St Ann's Hospice are to get more comfy high-tech beds as part of a special birthday present from Cheshire Freemasons. St Ann's, with wards in Heald Green in Stockport and Little Hulton in […]

Altrincham VS Cancer one of top JustGiving fundraisers

Altrincham VS Cancer has been named as one of the most successful fundraisers in March by JustGiving – the global online social platform for donating to charity. Out of 35,941 fundraisers, Altrincham VS Cancer was in […]

MGS teams show off their code-breaking skills

A team of pupils from The Manchester Grammar School (MGS) have proved they are among the best code-breakers in the country after coming third in a national cryptology competition. The four boys – Naunidh Dua, George […]
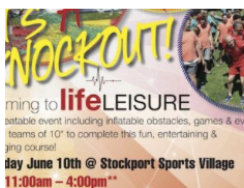

LATEST NEWS

Jeremy Orrell named new managing partner at SAS Daniels

Joe McElderry stars as Joseph at Stockport Plaza

Bespoke newsfeed

Life Leisure

Life Leisure hosting It's a Knockout event

Life Leisure is holding an It's a Knockout event at Stockport Sports Village. The event at the centre in Woodley, Stockport, runs from 10.30am-4pm on Saturday, June 10, is open to individuals or teams of [Read More]

Swimmer Holly Hibbott picked for World Championships

A teenager from Life Leisure's Stockport Metro Swimming programme has been selected for this year's FINA World Championships in Budapest. Stockport's Holly Hibbott secured her place on the team following a successful appearance at the [Read More]

Marple skatepark completed with Life Leisure funding

Life Leisure has stepped in with almost £12,000 to complete the redevelopment of Marple Memorial Park skatepark in Stockport. The improved skatepark offers users of all disciplines, including

Hollywood glamour comes to Manchester for charity ball

Charity footballers hit the target for Seashell Trust

Danny Lloyd leaves Stockport County for Peterborough United

Macclesfield Beer Festival enjoys 'best year ever'

Eventful outing for Hornby at record-breaking Renault UK Clio Cup event

Sale Sharks: SA scrum-half De Klerk joins, six in England training squad

Francis House nurse retiring after 25 years at Didsbury children's